

Dear all,

*“We have to admit that we are boundedly rational,
But the rational man is even more bounded,
So let’s have pity on him.”*

Our experimental-behavioral group invites you all to our Experimental - Behavioral Economics Christmas Meeting, with the topic “Implementing Economic Experiments in Every Course”

Date: Thursday 2nd of December, 14.00-15.00, aula 20-233, Jaume I

Agenda:

- Rosemarie Nagel: at least one economic experiments in every course in the undergrad and grad studies (support through the exper.-behavior. group members)
- Humberto Llavador: an example: undergrad course "introduction to microeconomics with experiments" (taught by H. LLavador, N. Iriberry, R. Nagel in first year Econ, ADE, IBE)
- Rosemarie Nagel 2011: LeeX Experimental Economics Summer School in Macroeconomics in preparation (Lictem 2011)
- Rosemarie Nagel 2011: LeeX International Conference on Theoretical and Experimental Macroeconomics in preparation (BLEESS 2011)
- Gert Cornelissen: Organization of one or two day retreat per year of the group, including a mini workshop.
- other points.

Cava and German Christmas cookies will be served.
Please confirm your attendance to rosemarie.nagel@upf.edu so there is enough cava. ..

See you then, and Merry Advent
Rosemarie Nagel
Go to our leeX webpage