Health insurance	If you are an EU student , you must obtain, prior to your arrival, the European Health Insurance Card from your Social Security office or provide detailed proof of private health insurance coverage (translated into French or English) valid for the duration of your stay in France. If you are a non-EU student , you will need to obtain health insurance coverage when you are enrolling at the ENS (free, but COMPULSORY). http://www.ens-lyon.fr/en/studies/student-information/practical-information-prepare-your-stay
Housing	Once you are accepted to the ENS de Lyon, you will receive an email with the online application form.. Exchange students have priority to on-campus accommodation. http://www.ens-lyon.fr/en/studies/student-information/practical-information-prepare-your-stay

Students with special needs	The school is actively engaged in a policy of recruiting, welcoming and giving support to people with disabilities, through its multi-annual Disability Scheme. ENS de Lyon actively supports students with disabilities: they can request a support program for students with disabilities (PAEH), with a view to adapting their study and examination conditions. The disability office organizes awareness campaigns and training, in which all students, teacher-researchers and administrative and technical staff are invited to participate. Disability Office:  Email: mission.handicap@ens-lyon.fr Tel. : +33 (0)4 26 23 39 81  http://www.ens-lyon.fr/en/about-us/our-commitments/disability-policy
Services and facilities	The school also gives you access to a certain number of student services among which: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- University Restaurant (RU)</li> <li>- Diderot Library</li> <li>- Reprography</li> <li>- IT Services</li> <li>- Health Prevention service</li> <li>- Laundry is accessible in the residence</li> <li>- Sports facilities</li> </ul> Moreover, a flurry of student associations plays a key part in ENS de Lyon’s campus life, whether in the fields of culture, arts, sports or humanitarian action. ENS de Lyon also hosts myriad conferences, performances, concerts and exhibitions – exciting events for everyone.  For more information: http://www.ens-lyon.fr/en/indexation/tags/campus-life
FLE – French course	Courses where non-French speaking students are gathered in small groups to learn the basics of the French language through written and, above all, oral exercises. These courses are offered to all exchange students.
Grading system	The ENS de Lyon uses the European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System (ECTS) which is a workload-based system for measuring and comparing study results. The student is awarded a certain number of ECTS credits for each course that reflects the workload necessary to successfully complete a course. Credits are awarded only when the student has fulfilled the course requirements, for example regular attendance. The credits are allocated by the individual departments in accordance with the standard workload determined by the respective study and examination.
Welcome week	ENS de Lyon hosts a dedicated “Discovery &amp; Integration week” for all our international students during the last week of August. This is a free of charge integration week. Different activities are offered, such as campus tours, administrative information booth, cultural activities, sightseeing visits, and intensive French classes (from A1 to B2 level). Thematic workshops will be organized, regarding for example: enrolment finalization, bank and insurance, medical services, etc.
