

Conferences on Global Democracy and Global Constitutionalism

Pompeu Fabra University (UPF), June 14-16 2017

Organized by: Law and Philosophy Group (<https://www.upf.edu/web/lphi>) & Global Democracy research Project (<http://www.globaldemocracyproject.com>)

Venue: Room 24S18. Sala Polivalent, Mercè Rodoreda Building, Ciutadella Campus:
<https://www.upf.edu/campus/en/ciutadella/wellington.html>

Workshop on Global Democracy

June 14

9.30 - 10.50: Jonathan Kuypers (University of Oslo and Stockholm University), "Democratic Legitimacy Beyond the State: Politicization, Representation, and a Systemic Framework". Discussant: Felipe Rey (Pompeu Fabra University)

10.50 - 11.20: coffee break

11.20 - 12.40: Thomas Christiano (University of Arizona), "Problems and Prospects for a Cosmopolitan Conception of State Consent". Discussant: Samantha Besson (University of Fribourg)

12.40 – 14.10: lunch

14.10 – 15.30: Miriam Ronzoni (University of Manchester), "Republicanism in Global Institutions. Three Desiderata in Tension". Discussant: Victoria Inostroza (Pompeu Fabra University)

15.30 – 16.50: Richard Bellamy (European University Institute), "Representing the People's of Europe: Republican Inter-Governmentalism and the Demoicratic Disconnect". Discussant: Paul Bou-Habib (Pompeu Fabra University)

16.50 – 17.10: coffee break

17.10 – 18.30: David Álvarez (University of Minho), “Cosmopolitans in our Midst: Global Residency and Supranational Affiliation”, Discussant: Cristina Astier (Pompeu Fabra University)

Conference on The Legal Philosophy of Global Constitutionalism

June 15

9.00 – 10.20: Mattias Kumm (Berlin Social Science Center –BZU- and New York University), “Global Constitutionalism: Its Concept of Law and the Task of Legal Scholarship”. Discussant: Juan Carlos Bayón (Autonomous University of Madrid)

10.20 – 10.40: coffee break

10.40 – 12.00: David Lefkowitz (University of Richmond), “A New Philosophy for International Legal Skepticism? Dworkin, Republicanism, and the Rule of International Law”. Discussant: Andrew Williams (Pompeu Fabra University – ICREA)

12.00 – 13.20: Samantha Besson (University of Fribourg) & José L. Martí (Pompeu Fabra University), “Legitimate Actors of Global Law-Making”. Discussant: Miriam Ronzoni (University of Manchester)

13.20 – 14.30: Lunch

14.30 – 15.50: Andreas Follesdal (Pluricourts, University of Oslo), “Do International Courts Conflict with the Separation of Powers?” Discussant: Aida Torres (Pompeu Fabra University)

15.50 – 17.10: José Juan Moreso & Chiara Valentini (Pompeu Fabra University), “Judicial Dialogue as Wide Reflective Equilibrium”. Discussant: Carlos Espósito (Autonomous University of Madrid)

17.10 – 17.30: coffee break

17.30 – 18.50: Matthias Klatt (University of Graz), “Proportionality and Justification”. Discussant: Juan Carlos Bayón (Autonomous University of Madrid)

June 16

9.00 – 10.20: Anne Peters (Max Plank Institute), “The Social Dimension of Global Constitutionalism”. Discussant: Christine Schwöbel-Patel (University of Liverpool)

10.20 – 10.40: coffee break

10.40 – 12.00: Cristina Lafont (Northwestern University), “Neoliberal Globalization and the International Protection of Human Rights”. Discussant: Iñigo González (University of Barcelona)

12.00 – 13.20: Christine Schwöbel-Patel (University of Liverpool), “The Public/Private Dichotomy in Global Constitutionalism and Its Neoliberal Implications”. Discussant: Indira Latorre (Pompeu Fabra University)

13.20 – 14.30: Lunch

14.30 – 15.50: Julio Montero (University of Buenos Aires), “International Human Rights Obligations and Their Priority”. Discussant: Jahel Queralt (Pompeu Fabra University)