

Sixth awarding decision of Erasmus+ International call for applications for students and staff mobility 2020 between UPF and partner universities during 2020-2021, 2021-2022 and 2022-2023 academic years

In the framework of the Erasmus+ International Credit Mobility Programme Call 2020, linked to the project 2020-1-ES01-KA107-081617,

Having reviewed and assessed the new applications submitted until December 15th 2022, under the call aforementioned;

Having available funds for mobility with the Mediterranean region, and within the frame of flexibility among countries in the same region, we open up the types of mobility and directions of flow;

And taking into consideration the proposal by the Selection Committee, on 10th January 2023, which is in compliance with the provisions of the Erasmus+ Programme,

I RESOLVE:

1. To create additional grants for any type of mobility and directions from the project remaining funds from the Mediterranean region.
2. To award the mobility grants to the list of beneficiaries:

Selected candidates will be contacted by email, starting by those whose mobility starts the soonest. If a selected candidate declines the grant for whatever reason, candidates on the reserve list will be contacted, also by email, and offered a place.

The scholarship rights are subject to:

- the submission of the Erasmus+ programme required documents by the beneficiaries
- beneficiary's fulfilment of the conditions during the mobility period, as it is said in the point 4 of the call guidelines.

International mobility is subject to COVID-19-related regulations and restrictions by the authorities of the sending and the receiving countries, the sending and receiving institutions, as well as the conditions set by the Erasmus programme.

3. To keep the call open offering the remaining grants (attached). New applications will be accepted and assessed according to the same call guidelines until the remaining scholarships are awarded.
