

ABS special issue

New perspectives on the Ethics of International Migration

Edited by Ricard Zapata-Barrero & Antoine Pécoud

Table of content

1 Introduction: New perspectives on the Ethics of International Migration
Ricard Zapata-Barrero & Antoine Pécoud

2 Moral, ethical, and realist dilemmas of transnational governance of migration
Veit Bader

3 European Migration Governance: from “anything goes” to the need for an ethical code
Ricard Zapata-Barrero

4 Why Not the Whole World? Ethical Dilemmas of Immigration Policy
Aristide R. Zolberg

5 Borders as a space of interaction: an account of special state obligations to irregular immigrants
Marit Hovdal-Moan

6 Where’s the Harm in That? Immigration enforcement, trafficking and the protection of migrants’ rights
Bridget Anderson

7 Overcoming the ethical dilemmas of skilled migration? An analysis of international narratives on the “brain drain”
Antonina Levatino & Antoine Pécoud

8 The human rights of migrant workers: Why do so few countries care?
Martin Ruhs