Refugee Songbooks - Live Recital	I Sapiens: Short Film Series	Night of Ideas: Discussion Panel, "Lonely Together"
Four years ago, mezzo-soprano Patricia Hammond was given a collection of 1920s and 30s songbooks by a retired soprano who sang for AJR members when she was a music student in the 1960s. This soprano, Angela Arratoon, had asked members back then what they'd most like to hear, and she was immediately gifted with these songbooks that the ladies had brought with them to England.	Cinemaattic offers on this occasion a program of movies that show us how the presence of mobile phones, screens and applications have changed the way we look at the world around us, how we inhabit public space and the way we build our relationships with others, especially the younger generations. This film series includes several Goya Award 2021 nominated short films, as well as movies from Chile and Brazil	Social media bring individuals together, opening them up to the world while enclosing them in bubbles of mimetic identification. Digital networks can increase social withdrawal, but it has also proved to be a unique way to combat lockdown loneliness. Can we be emotionally connected in the digital world?

Escape Room Virtual: El diario de Tolok (Spanish)	Ilustrad/as. A look at female creation in contemporary illustration (until February, 2)	Cultural activities at UPF (Catalan)
Año 1942. Durante una expedición a Camerún para comprender los mitos del pueblo pigmeo, Harrison Bones recibió la visita de un viejo conocido. Entre copas y confidencias, este le contó cómo en plena selva mejicana, encontró una escultura donde se apreciaba a diferentes Dioses reverenciando a una figura de Oro. El diario de Tolok es un juego ágil y sin registros ni descargas	Illustration is one of the most imaginative branches of creation, currently undergoing a remarkable cycle, the work of illustrators, and especially female illustrators, is being highly recognized at both the professional and artistic levels. Curated by Matilde Rodríguez, the show brings together creators of national and international renown, such as Luisa Rivera from Chile, Sonia Pulido, María Hesse, Helena Pérez García and Lara Lars, all from Spain.	Les diferents peces que componen el programa de cultura es concreten a través de la participació en diferents activitats i iniciatives. Moltes d'elles, tenen vocació clarament formativa, però altres desenvolupen una dimensió fortament performativa, fins al punt que esdevenen propostes on la intervenció i mobilització de la comunitat universitària és un aspecte substantiu a l'hora de projectar un objecte cultural.
