

Find some interesting activities organized by cultural institutions that you can join online. Enjoy!

Wednesday, March 10 th	Friday, March 12 th	Thursday, March 18 th
Global Duende: the international journeys of Flamenco. Africa	Agents for Change? Women and Protest in The National Archives Collections	Leadership Culture Putting People First Because People Matter
Flamenco is a World Heritage Site and is known and valued on all around the World. Lecturer Carlos van Tongeren has organized a seminar in which he will explain the paths that Flamenco has taken as an art form from North Africa, which gives it its origins, through the cultural exchange with America, the exile of the artists under Franco's regime, and the rise of Flamenco in Asia. A perfect opportunity to get to know Flamenco around the world in English.	This talk will reflect on women and protest in modern Britain through The National Archives records, from the movement for women's suffrage to the Ford Dagenham Campaigns of the 1960s. Within these records can at times be found surprisingly personal perspectives. This talk will pick up on key themes in women's activism throughout the 20th century, including; campaigns for the vote, for bodily autonomy, for equal pay, for peace and for racial equality.	Join us for an impactful conversation about selfless leadership that positively influences culture, performance, and profit. Scharrell Jackson, CEO & Founder of Leadership in Heels will moderate a powerful panel discussion with Jim Wallace, Trina Fleming, Dr. Karen Semien-McBride, Jody Kaminsky and Dr. Chris Mullen on how to be intentional about putting people first.

Ongoing activities through the term

Virtual Yoga: Classic Flow (March 15 and more dates)	The Short Story Supper Club with Racontesse (March 16 and more dates)	Soul on a Saturday (March 20 and more dates)
Experience the NYRR RUNCENTER at home! Led by expert motivational yoga instructor June Li Lo, this class will transform your living room, rooftop, or backyard into a lively home fitness studio. Register for the class time of your choice, and you will receive an email with your personal access link to join the class on Zoom.	Racontesse, the champion of short stories, will share their passion for the genre by showcasing six of the very best in this series of half-hour Supper Clubs. Each Short Story Supper Club will explore a different tale: tragic, twisted or funny, to prove that a delicious nibble can be every bit as satisfying as a rich feast. In digesting every element, from genre and themes to character and plot, we shall look at how and why each story works and marvel at the author who created it.	Welcome to SOUL ON SATURDAY SHOW, on www.groovelondon.com (Groove London radio). Playing the very best in Groove, Funk, R&B and Soul. From 4pm to 6pm Every Saturday ! Looking forward to a funky , groovy online party!