

IV Morning Symposium on Teaching Innovation & Quality at ESUP/DTIC - UCA EiTIC

Campus Comunicació-Poblenou, Universitat Pompeu Fabra

17th March 2017

Room 52.221 (Roc Boronat Building)

This Morning Symposium aims to provide an informal space to discuss aspects around teaching innovation/quality and share teaching experiences and innovation actions at DTIC/ESUP.

Note: Language will vary depending on speakers.

Note: Please note, we consider this symposium very relevant for the collective reflection about teaching in our community. Moreover, attendance certificates will be issued.

Summaries of last years' symposium are available online (2016, 2015, 2014)

Program

9:45 Welcome

Coffee and more

Opening, Enric Peig, Davinia Hernández-Leo

10:00 Session 1 "Teaching quality & innovation at ESUP/DTIC"

Davinia Hernández-Leo & Verónica Moreno

Overview of USQUID studies

Evolution of teaching satisfaction indicators (degrees, masters) at ESUP/DTIC

Professors' observations about issues in lectures

Some data about how our students prefer to learn

Gender aspects in teaching (data, actions within subjects, MENTOS project)

Discussion

11:00 Session 2 "Actions in courses: methods and tools to facilitate learning"

Albert Bel, Ana Freire, Vanesa Daza, Glòria Haro, Àngel Garcia-Cerdàña, Verónica Moreno, Davinia Hernández-Leo

Experiences using Kahoot, Nearpod and PyramidApp

Discussion

12:00 Session 3 "Teacher-to-teacher peer observations"

Miquel Oliver

OSWALDO project, call for participants

12:30 Session 4 "Plagiarism and exams"

Enric Peig

Issues, remarks and discussion around how we are carrying out exams.

13:00 - 13:30 Session 5 "Discussion and Wrap-Up"

Open discussion and closing remarks, moderated by Davinia Hernández-Leo