Contested Concepts in Migration Studies

Edited by Ricard Zapata-Barrero, Universitat Pompeu Fabra, Spain, Dirk Jacobs, Université Libre de Bruxelles, Belgium and Riva Kastoryano, Sciences Po CERI, France

Series: Routledge Series on Global Order Studies

This volume demonstrates that migration and diversity related concepts are always contested and provides a reflective critical awareness and better comprehension of the complex questions driving migration studies. It will be essential reading for students, scholars and practitioners in migration studies/politics, migrant integration, citizenship studies, racism studies and more broadly of key interest to sociology, political science, and political theory.
