

GRITIM-UPF Call 2017: MARIE SKŁODOWSKA-CURIE INDIVIDUAL FELLOWSHIPS

GRITIM-UPF will support two applications for Marie Skłodowska-Curie Individual Fellowships within the field of migration and diversity studies. Candidates with a PhD in Social Sciences are particularly encouraged to apply. We will prioritize candidates who have a strong research profile within one or more of the following particular areas:

- Citizenship, diversity, and discrimination
- Multi-level governance and cities
- Border and human mobility
- Qualitative methodology
- Geographical focus on Europe and the Mediterranean countries

Those interested in applying are encouraged to submit their CV together with a letter of interest of 2-3 pages where you briefly describe your proposed research project and explain why you think that GRITIM-UPF could give you support, to Evren Yalaz, GRITIM-UPF coordinator, at: gritim@upf.edu. Please use the e-mail title “GRITIM-UPF Call: MARIE SKŁODOWSKA-CURIE INDIVIDUAL FELLOWSHIPS.”

Deadline for submission of the CV + letter: May 15th.

The applicants will be informed of whether they are selected as GRITIM-UPF Marie Curie candidates before June 1st.

Two selected candidates will then be asked to prepare their full applications before July 20th.

A Marie Skłodowska-Curie Individual Actions Info-day will be hosted by UPF at the Mercè Rodoreda Auditorium (Ciutadella Campus) on May 16 at 11:00-13:00. The session will be broadcasted live on UPF’s website. To register for the Info-day.
