

A WORLD IN MOVEMENT

A look at contemporary migrations

Immigration Management – MSc. 2010 - 2011

ORGANIZED BY

Interdisciplinary Research Group in Immigration (GRITIM) of the Pompeu Fabra University & Barcelona Centre for International Affairs (CIDOB)

Cycle of conferences organized within the framework of the Masters in Immigration Management of the UPF University. It counts with the sponsorship of the Secretariat for Immigration of the Department of Social Action and Citizenship of the Municipality of Catalonia, and with the collaboration of CIDOB and IEMED.

The aim of this cycle is to provide descriptive and analytic elements that can help to understand the challenges that the governance of migration faces in different geographical settings.

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

February 24

Comparative Diversity

Steve Vertovec. Max Planck Institute for the Study of Religious and Ethnic Diversity, Göttingen, Germany

March 10

The EU Border Management Strategy

Sergio Carrera. The Centre for European Policy Studies (CEPS), Belgium

March 31

Ethnic discrimination and anti-discrimination in the area of employment in comparative EU perspective

John Wrench. Danish Centre for Migration and Ethnic Studies, Denmark

April 14

Migration acculturation processes – intercultural psychology

Karen Phalet. University of Leuven, Belgium

May 26

Public Opinion and Migration

Juan Díaz Medrano. Institut Barcelona d'Estudis Internacionals (IBEI), Spain

June 9

A rights-based approach: circular labour migration

Gloria De Pascual. International Labour Organization, International Migration Branch.

Schedule of Sessions: 18-20h.

Location: Sala Maragall CIDOB - C/ Elisabets, 12. 08001 Barcelona

Registration: Attendance is free and space is limited. Please confirm your assistance in the web page of CIDOB