Profile

- I am a political scientist with a Certificat d'Études Politiques and a M.A. in International Relations.
- I am currently working at the Barcelona Institute for International Relations \(IBEI\) as researcher and coordinator of the project ACCOUNTREG. Simultaneously, I am an assistant professor at the Faculty of Law of the Pompeu Fabra University (UPF), where I am also undertaking a PhD in International Law. I am writing a thesis dissertation on the right to food.
- I am involved in different civil society organizations, such as the Human Rights Institute of Catalonia \(IDHC\) – member of its Executive Board since January 2012- and the association United Explanations -vice president since March 2012-. I am also involved in the writing of the collaborative Report on the right to food in Catalonia.
- My research interests cover a wide range of topics, from human rights to social policies and the accountability of regulatory bodies. I am particularly interested in studying the intersection between environmental and human rights law.
- I have working experience at the European level (the UK, Belgium and Austria). I feel comfortable in multicultural environments. I am fluent in Spanish, English, French and Italian and I have a good knowledge of Catalan and Portuguese.
