

Internship Rita Wing- UPF Centre for Animal Ethics 2023-24

Collaborating Institution: UPF-Centre for Animal Ethics

Collaborating Institution's Description:

UPF-CAE is a study centre at Pompeu Fabra University dedicated to animal ethics from a multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary perspective. Its mission is to promote non-speciesist ethical approaches in academia, politics, the media and public opinion. (<http://www.upf.edu/cae>)

Basic Data:

Available positions: 1

Study Aid: 6,94 euros/hora

Working hours: Indiferent

Workplace: remote (but you must be available to come to UPF when necessary to support face-to-face tasks, training seminars, activities at the centre, etc.)

Work hours: 360 hours (45 hours a month during 8 months). From October of 2023 to May 2024.

Starting: 2 October 2023(in any case, 7 months from the formalization of the internship).

Tasks:

The student, under the supervision of the internship tutor, will participate in the following tasks of the study center:

- Participate in research tasks of the projects and academic activities of the center and its members.
- Participate in the drafting and preparation of materials for strategic campaigns of the center and in the tasks of execution of the campaigns.
- Participate in the organization of events and events.

All tasks will be related and provide skills:

- Transversal and basic: teamwork, responsibility, autonomy, interpersonal relationship, willingness to learn
- Generic texts from different disciplines: mainly strategic communication, political philosophy and ethics
- Specific: relating to animal ethics, critical animal studies and animal activism.

Other candidate requirements:

They must be studying for a master's degree in any discipline at UPF (it doesn't matter if they first or second year)

It is necessary to have some experience or training (it is not necessary both, but one of the two) in (at least one of these issues): activism, social movements, research in social sciences, communication, law, philosophy, life sciences.

With their academic record and curriculum vitae, they must also provide a letter of motivation of maximum 500 words) to explain why the candidate considers that their profile is suitable for these internships and why they want to do an internship at UPF-Centre for Animal Ethics.

Languages:

You must have a very good level of Catalan, Spanish and English.
You need to be able to write correctly, read and interact in these three languages.

Application and Documentation:

Through Campus Treball

Students who are already enrolled can access Campus Treball through this link

Deadline for Resolution of Aid: The final resolution will be published at the end of September 2023 on this website.