

Date of publication of the offer: 8.5.2018

Offer title:

Research Assistant in philosophy of law at UPF Law Department

Description of tasks

Main Tasks and Responsibilities

The selected candidate will undertake 1) case-law search and 2) bibliographical search/literature review concerning access to justice and standards of review in human rights adjudication, in a comparative perspective.

Funding institution, project title and project reference

The position is within the MINECO – Ramon y Cajal Research Grant (RYC-2012-12175);
Principal Investigator: Dr. Chiara Valentini

Requirements of candidates

- The candidate should be a master or PhD student in Law, with a legal-philosophical background and some previous experience in conducting research and analysing case-law.
- Proficiency in English is required to perform the assignment.

Features of the contract

PSR, part-time contract of 20 working hours per week, between 01/07/18 and 30/09/18 with the possibility of renewal for two months, with a gross salary of 1231,85 Euros per month approximately plus Social Security costs.

Information about the application process

Candidates must send their CV and an abstract (max. 500 words) of their Master/PhD thesis by email to chiara.valentini@upf.edu with the following reference: PHIL1-2018

Assessment criteria

CV (40 points) and research background related to the project (60 points)

Deadline to submit applications: 28/5/2018

Date of publication of the proposal of resolution: 4/6/2018