

Technology and Sports: Disruption, Rights and Players

April 26, 2024

Room 40.012

Law Department, Pompeu Fabra University
Campus de la Ciudadella

Programme:

- 9:30 Introduction by prof. José Luis Pérez Triviño y prof. Migle Laukyte
- 10:00 - 10:45 Prof. Luisa Ávila, University of Oporto (Portugal):
“Unleashing Power and Control: Technology’s Impact on the Aesthetic-Ethical Experience of Sport”
- 10:45 - 11:00 Coffee break
- 11:00 - 11:45 Prof. Matija Skerbic, Zagreb University (Croatia): “On the Future of Sport with Technology: Building an Ethical Framework for the Implementation and Usage of Technology in Sports”
- 11:45 - 12:30 Prof. Filip Kobiela, Cracow University (Poland): “Luzania vs. Neo-Cockaygne: The Two Visions of the Technological Future”
- 12:30 - 13:15 Prof. Sigmund Loland, University of Oslo (Norway)
“Sports and Technology: Ethical Issues”
- 13:15 - 14:30 Lunch break
- 14:30 - 15:15 Prof. Silvia Salardi, University of Bicocca of Milan (Italy):
“Is Promotion and Protection of Athletes’ Human Rights Feasible in the Age of ‘Techno’ Sport?”
- 15:15 - 16:00 Prof. Albert Carrio (UPF) “How AI is Shaping Sports and We Should Be Worried About It?”
- 16:00 - 16:30 Final remarks