

Legal Authorities in Early Modern Legal Reasoning (16th-18th centuries)

Edinburgh University, Law School

Old College, Elder Room, 25th - 26th May 2018

Friday 25th May:

9.0: Arrival

tea / coffee / Danish pastries

9.30: Guido Rossi (Edinburgh)

Welcome

9.45-10.45: John Ford (Aberdeen)

Paradigms of Authority in the Scottish Courts

10.45-11.15: break tea /coffee

11.15-12.15: Josep Capdeferro (Barcelona)

Multipolar development of law in early Modern Catalonia

12.15-13.15: Lunch

13.15-14.15: Marco Miletta (Foggia)

From stylus iudicandi to vis legis: Italian Supreme Courts and collections of decisiones in the Early Modern Period

14.15-15.15: Maciej Mikuła (Kraków)

Iura scripta and Operae iurisperiti in Municipal Courts of Kingdom of Poland in 16th-18th Centuries

15.15-15.45: break

15.45-16.45: Heikki Pihlajamäki (Helsinki)

Comparing Legal Authorities in the Seventeenth Century: The Swedish and German Empires

19.00-19.30: Elder Room, Old College Drinks reception

19.30-22.00: Raeburn Room, Old College Dinner

Saturday 8th June:

9.0: Arrival

tea /coffee /Danish pastries

9.30-10.30: Philip Thomas (Pretoria)

Legal argumentation in the Dutch republic

10.30-11.0-0: Break tea / coffee

11.00-12.00: Alain Wijffels (Leuven, Louvain-la-Neuve, Leiden, Lille)

Usus Modernus in the Southern Netherlands

12.00-13.00: Peter Oestmann (Münster) Karen Baston (Edinburgh)

Legal Authorities in the Decisions of the Imperial Chamber Court of the Holy Roman Empire

13.00-14.00: lunch

14.00-15.00: Pedro Barbas Homem (Lisbon)

Syndicatus, motivation of decisions and appeal: How institutional framework determined legal reasoning of lower courts

15.00-15.30: break

15:30-16:30 Business Meeting

Evening Free